"REPRESENTING THE CRIMSON TIDE..."

...and competing at the highest level in the nation's most successful athletic conference, the SEC, has brought me much joy and I am very proud of what I have been able to accomplish with the volleyball program here. I will always treasure the memories I have and will continue to make at Alabama with our past and current student-athletes and all of the assistant coaches, past and present, who have helped me along the way. I, along with my coaching staff, are excited about the challenges and opportunities ahead for the 2010 season knowing everyone associated with our program is more enthusiastic and committed than ever before to help us reach our team goals."

- HEAD COACH JUDY GREEN

A CRIMSON LEGACY

AS THE CRIMSON TIDE'S LONGEST TENURED VOLLEYBALL COACH, JUDY GREEN HAS RAISED THE NET TO UNPRECEDENTED HEIGHTS. SHE LED ALABAMA TO THREE NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES, INCLUDING THE PROGRAM'S FIRST IN 2005, FOLLOWED BY BIDS IN 2006 AND 2007. SHE HAS ALSO COACHED THE TIDE TO A PAIR OF SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE WESTERN DIVISION TITLES IN 2000 AND 2004 AND THE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME OF THE FINAL SEC TOURNAMENT IN 2005. HER FIRST RECRUITING CLASS POSTED A 22-8 RECORD AS SENIORS EN ROUTE TO THE FIRST SEC WESTERN DIVISION TITLE. THE 2008 SEASON BROUGHT ALONG YET ANOTHER HIGHLIGHT AS GREEN COLLECTED HER 600TH CAREER VICTORY RANKING HER 15TH AMONG ACTIVE COACHES FOR ALL-TIME WINS.

MEDIA INFORMATION

ALABAMA VOLLEYBALL IS ON THE AIR!

For the ninth consecutive season WVUA-FM will broadcast Alabama volleyball matches live on the radio and over the internet. The WVUA sports staff has steadily increased its broadcast calendar for Crimson Tide volleyball and this season will be no exception starting with the first home contest on September 1. In the Tuscaloosa area the matches can be heard on 90.7 FM. Outside of the Tuscaloosa area, matches can be followed on the internet at NewRock907.com. For a complete listing of matches being covered visit RollTide.com and click on the schedule link on the volleyball home page.

MEDIA SERVICES/CREDENTIALS

Members of the media are supplied with up-to-date release packages containing statistics, season results and notes. Pre-match notes and media guides are available courtside prior to each home match in the CAVE. Those wishing to cover Alabama volleyball should contact Assistant Media Relations Director Jessica Pare via phone at 205-348-3673 or e-mail at jpare@ia.ua.edu. Head Coach Judy Green and student-athletes will be available for interviews approximately 10-15 minutes after the match.

MEDIA PARKING

There is no specific media parking area for Alabama volleyball matches. Media members are allowed to park in any of the lots adjacent to Coleman Coliseum. Parking near the back entrance of the coliseum is suggested for easier access to the Media Relations Office, the CAVE and the media workroom.

TELEPHONE/FAX SERVICES

The Media Relations Office, by request, will provide telephone and/or fax services to members of the media following each match. In the event of special requests or needs please contact Assistant Media Relations Director Jessica Pare.

INTERNET

Information about University of Alabama athletics can be found on the internet at RollTide.com. For information about the Crimson Tide volleyball program select volleyball under the sports drop-down menu on the home page. Alabama fans will once again be able to follow matches via the internet through a live-stat webcast.

THE CAVE

The Alabama volleyball team competes in the CAVE (Coleman Auxiliary Volleyball Extension), an addition of the Coliseum located at the rear of the original structure on Paul W. Bryant Drive. The volleyball offices and locker room facilities are also located in Coleman Coliseum.

INTERVIEWS

Head Coach Judy Green can be reached on her office phone at 205-348-3829, however, all student-athlete interviews must be arranged through Assistant Media Relations Director Jessica Pare. The best time to reach Coach Green in her office is before 11:30 a.m.

SATELLITE FEEDS/TELEVISION

The University of Alabama, through the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN), offers a weekly, 15-minute satellite feed consisting of interviews with coaches and athletes, taped video highlights and narrated tape packages from September through May. On occasion, the volleyball team is featured in this package. Please call the Media Relations Office for more details at 205-348-6084. During the fall, the volleyball team's progress will be covered on "Crimson Tide This Week," a 30-minute weekly regional sports show.

SWEET HOME ALABAMA

As president of The University of Alabama, Dr. Robert E. Witt has committed the University to an ambitious plan for academic growth and achievement. His goals include increasing enrollment by recruiting academically talented students from Alabama and across the country, stimulating significant growth in research and strongly supporting the state's economic development efforts. Under his leadership, enrollment has reached record levels, passing the goal of 28,000 students in 2009, four years earlier than planned, and academic quality and scholarship opportunities for deserving students have increased significantly. The University ranks 10th nationally among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars and leads the nation in the number of students named to USA Today's All-USA College Academic Teams. Since its inception in 2003, the University's Honors College has grown exponentially, and currently enrolls more than 1,000 freshmen each year. UA's loyal alumni and friends continue to provide a high level of support to the University, with private giving having an important impact on the University's ability to fund scholarships, faculty support and construction projects.

Prior to joining The University of Alabama in 2003, Dr. Witt spent 35 years as a faculty member and administrator in the University of Texas System. He received his B.A. in economics from Bates College, his M.B.A. from Tuck School at Dartmouth College, and his Ph.D. from Penn State University. He serves on the boards of directors of the West Alabama Chamber of Commerce, the Black Warrior Council Boy Scouts of America, and the American Cast Iron Pipe Company. He is a member of the Tuscaloosa County Industrial Development Authority. Dr. Witt and his wife Sandee have three grandchildren.

Dr. Robert E. Witt
PRESIDENT, UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

TOP RANKED

ONE OF AMERICA'S TOP PUBLIC UNIVERSITIES

The University of Alabama perennially ranks among the top 50 public universities in the nation in U.S. News and World Report's annual college rankings and ranked 43rd among public universities in the 2010 rankings. UA's latest college rankings include:

- * The School of Law is ranked 38th among all law schools in the nation, spring 2010.
- * The School of Library and Information Studies is ranked 22nd nationally, spring 2009.
- * The School of Social Work's graduate program is ranked 28th among social work programs at public universities and 42nd when both public and private institutions are included, spring 2008.
- * The undergraduate business program is ranked 35th among public undergraduate business schools and 57th when private universities are included, fall 2009

ALABAMA

* Enrollment at The University of Alabama reached a record high of 28,807 for fall 2009. The entering freshman class, at 5,207 students, is the largest in UA history and includes more than 1,173 students who had a 4.0 or higher high school grade point average.

* The University of Alabama's fall 2009 freshman class ranks 10th in the nation among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars, up from 11th in 2008.

* The University of Alabama has produced a total of 15 Rhodes Scholars. And, in the past two decades, we've produced 30 Goldwater Scholars, 19 Hollings Scholars, 7 Truman Scholars, two Javits Fellows, one Udall Scholar and one Portz Scholar.

* Participation in original research and creative activities is becoming a hallmark of the undergraduate experience at The University of Alabama. More than 250 undergraduates showcased their research and creative activity projects at UA's spring 2010 "Undergraduate Research and Creative Activity Conference."

* The University of Alabama has been named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service. The Community Service Honor Roll is the highest federal recognition a school can achieve for its commitment to service learning and civic engagement.

* The University of Alabama has been selected by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching for its 2008 Community Engagement Classification. The designation recognizes UA as one of the nation's premiere institutions in community outreach and scholarship, and it underscores UA's commitment to apply its resources and expertise to address critical community needs.

* The University of Alabama has been engaged in an aggressive program to upgrade and expand facilities, opening 40 new facilities, including 10 new residence halls, two new dining halls, and four new academic buildings, since January 2003.

* The public relations program at The University of Alabama is ranked second in the nation according to new rankings produced and published in PRWeek Magazine. UA is the highest ranked university that offers both graduate and undergraduate programs.

* The University of Alabama led the nation with a record 10 students named to USA Today's 2010 All-USA College Academic Team. UA has had great success in placing students on this national team that honors the "best of the best" undergraduate academic all-stars from across the nation, having placed 46 students on the team since 2003. In addition to this year, UA also had the most students on the list in 2003, 2005, 2006, 2008 and 2009 and tied for the top spot in 2007.

▼ GORGAS LIBRARY

Life on The University of Alabama campus is defined by opportunities. If you want to get involved, join one of more than 300 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

If you enjoy the arts, you can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. You can enrich your knowledge of the state and university's history by visiting one of UA's fine museums, which house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

▼ THE PRESIDENT'S MANSION

In 1838 the University of Alabama Board of Trustees appropriated funds for a more suitable residence for the University's new president, Basil Manly. The mansion was built between 1839 and 1841. According to tradition, Louisa Frances Garland, wife of president Landon C. Garland, valiantly saved the stately residence from destruction when Union troops destroyed the campus in April 4, 1865. The mansion, which has undergone a number of restorations, assumed its predominately white appearance in 1908.

From the architecture on campus to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama.

▼ THE FERGUSON CENTER

The Ferguson Center, completed in 1973, was named for Hill Ferguson, a member of the Board of Trustees. Plans at the time called for the building to be constructed over Woods Hall, but it was built just to the north thanks to a student campaign to save the art building.

The Ferguson Center Game Room located on the First Floor is the perfect place to unwind, test your skill at a video game, play a friendly game of pool or ping-pong, or enter a campus tournament. With seven pool tables, video games, a ping-pong table, computer gaming and televisions, the Game Room offers a fun escape to the daily pressures of college life.

The Ferguson Center is the community center of The University of Alabama. The "Ferg" houses an impressive array of services and facilities including:

- *Alabama Credit Union
- *Art gallery
- *ATM machines
- *Ballroom
- *Career Center
- *Computer Lab
- *Crimson Copies
- *Dean of Students
- *Food Court
- *Game room/arcade

- *Information desk
- *Meeting, reception, banquet rooms
- *Student Judicial Affairs
- *Student organization offices
- *Theater
- *University Supply Store
- *U.S. Post Office
- *Volunteer Services

▼ STUDENT SECTION

The University of Alabama offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Whatever your interests, you'll find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

There are more than 50 Greek organizations and more than 30 campus ministries at The University of Alabama.

← THE STUDENT RECREATION CENTER

The newly expanded Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities to students, faculty and staff.

The expanded facility includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet.

The facility's outdoor aquatic area, which opened in the summer of 2003, features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and lots of deck space.

M A L MOORE

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

The University of Alabama's Director of Athletics since 1999, Mal Moore has made an indelible mark on one of the nation's most storied athletic programs, leading a department that has enjoyed tremendous success athletically and academically and has undergone an unprecedented period of growth during his tenure.

Through his guidance, Alabama's athletic department remains focused on his vision of having all Crimson Tide athletic teams and student-athletes competitive at the highest level nationally while continuing to elevate athletic facilities at the Capstone to premier status nationally for all sports.

During his tenure as Director of Athletics, Moore has overseen more than $200 million of capital improvements to University of Alabama athletic facilities. Those projects have encompassed the entire scope of all Crimson Tide athletic programs and have benefitted every Alabama student-athlete, coach, and administrator.

Throughout his multi-faceted career, Moore has worked with a diversified field of constituents, from fellow coaches and former players, to fans and the business community. All of those experiences and relationships - in addition to his ability to unify those many constituents - have made him the ideal person to lead Alabama athletics in the 21st century.

His leadership has been crucial in helping guide Alabama through a period that has been, at times, extremely challenging. His guidance and effort helped Alabama athletics weather the storm, while continuing to move in a positive direction toward a future that holds great promise.

Moore's dedication to and love of the University of Alabama was recognized on March 28, 2007, when as a permanent tribute to his life-long contribution to The University of Alabama, the Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama officially dedicated the facility formerly known as The Football Building as the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility.

Under Moore's direction, Alabama's athletic teams have produced two national championships, the 2009 football title and the 2002 NCAA gymnastics championship, as well as several Southeastern Conference championships, winning titles in football, gymnastics, men's basketball, women's golf, men's golf, men's cross country, baseball and softball; taking SEC tournament titles in both baseball and softball. Alabama athletes have earned some of the highest honors the SEC and NCAA have to offer, including SEC Athlete of the Year, SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, NCAA Top VIII, NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships and NCAA Sportsman of the Year. These honors are over and above the individual conference and national titles that Alabama athletes continue to bring home to the Capstone on a regular basis.

In addition to making his mark on Alabama, Moore has also had a national impact as a key member of several prestigious NCAA and college football committees. Moore has served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee, the SEC Athletic Directors Bowl Advisory Committee and the Big Six Conferences Minority Coaches Forum.

Moore's distinguished record of service to UA began more than 50 years ago when he joined the Crimson Tide football squad as a scholarship player for Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1958-62. Moore has the distinction of being a part of eight national championship teams (1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978, 1979, 1992 and 2009) with the first coming as a player, the next six during his coaching career and the last during his tenure as director of athletics. As a player and coach, he was also part of 14 SEC championships, and 27 bowl trips. He is the only individual connected with the Tide program to be a part of eight national championships.

During a coaching career that spanned 31 years, Moore spent 22 of those at Alabama with stops at Montana State, Notre Dame and the NFL's St. Louis and Phoenix Cardinals. At Alabama, Moore started as Coach Bryant's graduate assistant in 1964, then as defensive backfield coach for five years beginning in 1965 before becoming quarterbacks coach from 1971-82 and serving as the Tide's first offensive coordinator starting in 1975. He would go on to coordinate all of the offensive plays for Alabama's last four national championship teams.

A 1963 graduate of The University of Alabama, Moore holds both an undergraduate degree in Sociology and a 1964 Master's Degree in Secondary Education from the Capstone. Moore was born December 19, 1939, in Dozier, Ala. He and the late Mrs. Charlotte Moore have one daughter, Mrs. Steve (Heather) Cook of Scottsdale, Ariz., a granddaughter, Anna Lee, and a grandson, Charles Cannon.

TRADITION CHAMPIONS LEADERS

In embracing our core values we will:

Build and maintain an athletic program that annually ranks among the national elite in all sports;
emphasize recruitment of the top student-athlete;
construct and develop first-class facilities in which our student-athletes and coaches can train and compete at the highest level; promote community involvement of our student-athletes, coaches and staff as necessary for our program's success;
and perpetuate our rich heritage and tradition through the spirited branding of our Crimson Tide name.

Drawing from our rich heritage and tradition of champions, the University of Alabama Department of Athletics is committed to the highest standard of excellence in all its endeavors to develop future leaders.

VISION

We will be visionary in our efforts to develop and maintain a superior intercollegiate Athletics Program.

INTEGRITY

We will demonstrate unquestionable integrity in all areas of conduct in total compliance with all UA, SEC and NCAA regulations; including day-to-day interaction with all fellow staff members and student-athletes.

COMMITMENT

We will commit to the total support of the educational, athletic and personal development of all our student-athletes while training future leaders.

RESPECT

We will demonstrate diversity and inclusiveness within our department providing opportunities regardless of gender, race or physical challenges.

EXCELLENCE

We will pursue generational loyalty to Crimson Tide Athletics through the comprehensive excellence in our athletic programs.

ACCOUNTABILITY

We will accept the responsibility for our actions as representatives of the athletic department while being accountable to our student-athletes, staff, fans and supporters.

THE CAVE

- The Official Home of Alabama Volleyball

Like the song played during the pre-match introductions, the Crimson Tide volleyball team has long lived up to the standard of Sweet Home Alabama. The Tide plays all its home matches in the CAVE and has created one of the best home environments in the nation.

Opened in 1996, the back gym was part of an expansion project for Alabama's Coleman Coliseum. In the beginning, it served as a practice facility for volleyball and women's basketball.

In 2000 all that changed when the former practice floor became the official home for Alabama volleyball and was dubbed "The CAVE" (Coleman Auxiliary Volleyball Extension) because of its close quarters and loud, energized atmosphere.

Sets of bleachers were brought in and the Crimson Tide played in front of standing room only crowds for almost every match. Fans surround the court providing Alabama with a distinct home court advantage.

The Tide's locker room is conveniently located in Coleman Coliseum just a few steps from the CAVE. The locker room underwent an upgrade with the addition of a wall size entertainment center and new carpets. The coliseum also houses the training room and weight room for the volleyball program.

In 2000 Alabama began play in the CAVE posting an impressive 8-2 mark in that debut season. Since then the Tide has averaged just shy of 10 wins a season in the CAVE, winning nearly 70-percent of its home matches.

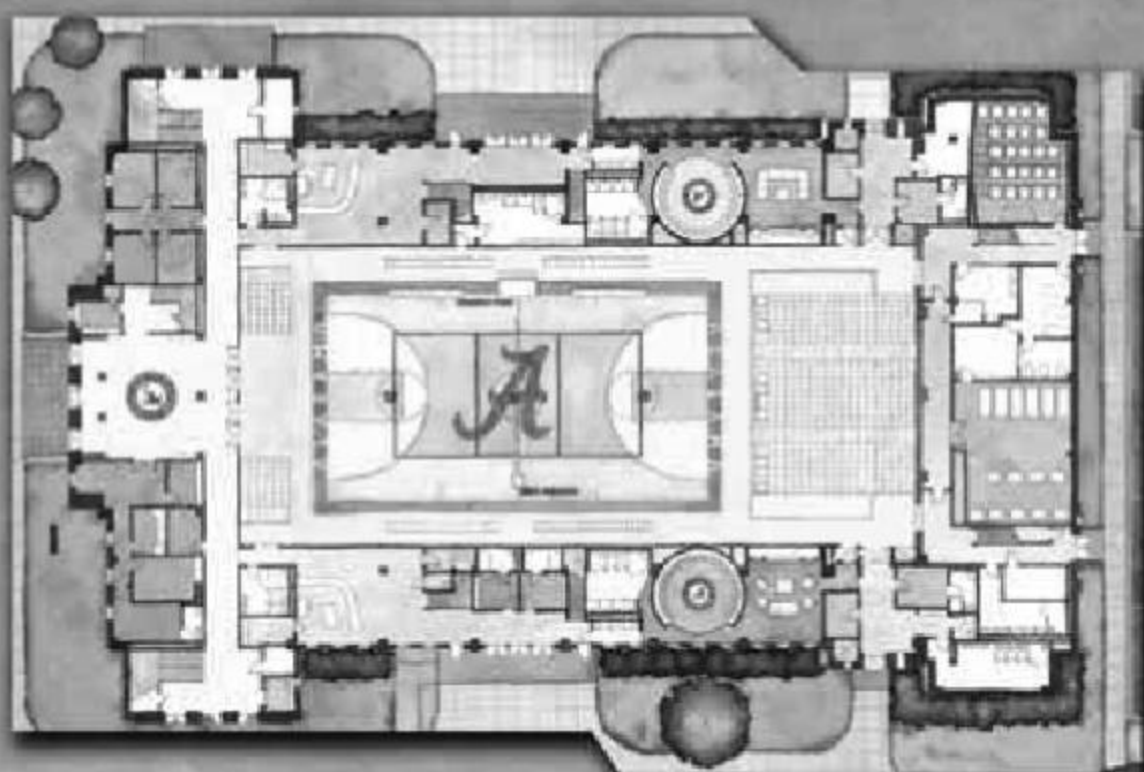

Alabama has hosted over 65,000 fans during the regular season, averaging 486 per meet over the last 10 seasons. In 2006, Alabama set a new single-season attendance record, averaging 674 fans per match.

During the Tide's 29 years of play, three sites have served as its home court including Foster Auditorium, where the team will move back to this season, Coleman Coliseum and most recently the CAVE. Alabama has amassed an impressive 279 wins in home matches — meaning Alabama wins two-thirds of its home contests, averaging more than nine wins a season in Tuscaloosa.

Alabama posted a 161-68 (.700) all-time mark over 15 seasons in historic Foster Auditorium before moving to Coleman in 1996 and went 25-29 (.462) on the main floor of the Coliseum.

BACK TO THE FUTURE

FOSTER AUDITORIUM

ARENA BALCONY SEATING

FOSTER LOCKER ROOM

FOSTER AUDITORIUM

The University of Alabama Athletics Department is in the process of renovating and expanding Foster Auditorium and creating a new home for the Crimson Tide's volleyball and women's basketball programs.

The restoration of the venerable three-story building is underway now and will include refurbishing the arena portion of the building, with new seating both on the floor level and the building's second level which overlooks the court and promises to create an impressive competitive atmosphere.

The renovation will also include suites for both programs that will house the team's locker rooms, team areas, meeting and video rooms, and coaches offices. There will also be a weight room and training facilities included in the project.

Volleyball and women's basketball are currently housed in Coleman Coliseum along with the men's basketball and gymnastics programs. Foster Auditorium was named in 1942 for Richard Clarke Foster, president of the University of Alabama from 1937-41, and was the largest and most expensive of 14 buildings added to campus between 1936 and 1939 using funds from the Public Works Administration.

In its original capacity, Foster served as home for intramurals, graduations, concerts, lectures and campus meetings. It also served as the home of several varsity athletic programs over the years, including the men's basketball team until 1968 and women's basketball who played a few games there in their inaugural 1975 season before they followed the men to what is now known as Coleman Coliseum.

The Tide's volleyball and gymnastics program also practiced and competed in Foster. The gymnastics team began competing in Coleman Coliseum in the late 1980s, with the volleyball program making the move in 1996 with the completion the coliseum annex.

The women's athletic program, including coaches and administrative offices, was located in Foster during the 1970s through the early 1980s.

PRACTICE

Since 1996, the volleyball team has called the CAVE (Coleman Auxiliary Volleyball Extension) its official home for both practice and matches. On practice days, the CAVE holds three regulation-size volleyball courts allowing for team competition and specialized drills. Midway through the 2010 season, the team plans to move to its home of the future - Foster Auditorium - located centrally on campus.

ROLL MODELS

Tide Players seek to maximize their impact.

The Crimson Tide volleyball team regularly gives back to the city of Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas through various community service programs. Alabama student-athletes take time out of their hectic schedules to read to children, speak at local churches or to just stop by a hospital to brighten the day of patients.

"Being a collegiate athlete, you are already a role model and someone for children to look up to. Community service is important because it gives the kids a chance to personally interact with you and have a positive role model. The last three semesters I have worked with toddlers and elementary kids, either talking to them about making good choices or just playing with them and being a friend. I have met some great kids in the Tuscaloosa community."

THE SEC

Setting the standard for intercollegiate athletics in volleyball.

The Southeastern Conference continues to flourish as a solid and competitive league in women's collegiate volleyball.

In the last two decades, the SEC has made stellar contributions in volleyball. The conference has sent at least two SEC teams to the NCAA Tournament in every season the last 20 years. The SEC had a team reach the Final Four seven of the 10 seasons in the '90s with the league having a team advance to the regional final nine of those 10 seasons.

Since 2000, the SEC has had a team reach the Final Four three times and regional final four times. In 2009, the LSU Tigers won the SEC title, their fifth in program history, first since 1991. The win by LSU snapped an 18-year reign of the Florida Gators.

The SEC sent four teams to the NCAA Tournament: Florida, Kentucky, LSU and Tennessee. Kentucky and Tennessee both advanced to the Regional rounds.

Since the inaugural SEC volleyball championship in 1979-80, many changes have occurred in the conference with volleyball. The addition of Arkansas and South Carolina to the league in 1991 brought the divisional format to the sport with five teams competing in the Eastern Division and six teams in the Western Division.

In 2009, the SEC entered into an unprecedented TV agreement with ESPN that provided exclusive coverage of SEC athletics. With the arrangement, SEC volleyball is now broadcast on three different platforms: ESPNU, FS South/Southwest/Sun Sports and CSS and has more exposure than any other league. Live SEC volleyball coverage can now reach into 73 million homes nation-wide on ESPNU, and in the SEC nine-state region, 25 million homes on FS South/Southwest/Sun Sports, and 11 million homes on CSS.

SEC ACCOLADES

- The 2009 season marked the 20th consecutive season in which the SEC has placed at least two teams in the NCAA Tournament.
- The SEC landed four teams in the NCAA Tournament, two of which advanced to the Regionals. This marks the first time two SEC teams made it to the Regionals since 2005.
- Four teams posted 20-plus win seasons. Kentucky led with 29, Florida and LSU with 25 and Tennessee with 24.
- LSU's Brittnee Cooper became the first SEC player since 2006 to earn First-Team All-America honors. She is the first LSU player since 1992 to do so.
- The SEC posted 11 student-athletes to AVCA All-America Teams.
- Ten student-athletes were named to ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District teams for a total of 56 all-time.
- Freshman Jasmine Norton was named AVCA South Region Freshman of the Year. The SEC had 12 individuals named to the AVCA South All-Region Team, including three honorable mentions.
- South Carolina's Sarah Cline was named to ESPN The Magazine's All-Academic Second Team while Kentucky's Sarah Rumely was named Third Team.
- In the past 19 years, 1,129 student-athletes have earned selection to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.
- In 2009, the SEC had four teams ranked in the Top 25, marking the first time since 1993 that the SEC has had four teams ranked at once.

KNOW THE RULES

Some FAQ when dealing with Student-Athletes

WHO IS A REPRESENTATIVE OF ALABAMA INTERESTS?

Someone who:

- Has ever made any type of financial or in-kind contribution to the athletics department, to a specific sport program or to an athletics booster organization, including purchasing donor seating to athletics events (i.e., Tide Pride Football or Tide Pride Basketball)
- Is or has been a member of any organization or agency promoting University of Alabama athletics (i.e., Red Elephant Club, Grand Slammers, etc.);
- Has ever helped to arrange or has provided employment for an enrolled student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or their parents or relatives;
- Has ever assisted in any manner in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes;
- Has ever provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families or to prospective student-athletes or their families;
- Has otherwise promoted the institution's athletics program in any manner.

WHAT ABOUT RECRUITING?

As a representative of Alabama's athletics' interests, you may not:

- Contact a prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an effort to evaluate a prospect
- Visit the prospect's institution to pick up film or transcripts pertaining to the evaluation of the prospect's academic eligibility or athletic ability
- Contact a prospect, his/her parents, legal guardians or spouse on or off the Alabama campus
- Contact a prospect by telephone or by letter
- Make special arrangements for entertainment for recruiting purposes
- Provide reduced cost products or services to a prospect

WHO IS A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE?

NCAA rules stipulate that a prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth (9th) grade, regardless of his/her athletics ability.

A prospective student-athlete remains a prospect even after he or she has signed a National Letter of Intent or accepts an offer of financial aid to attend The University of Alabama until he/she reports for the first day of classes for a regular term (fall or spring).

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE APPEARANCES & PROMOTIONS?

Student-athletes are prohibited from being involved in the advertisement, recommendation or promotion of sales or use of any commercial product or service of any kind. All charitable, educational and nonprofit promotional activities involving student-athletes must have prior approval from the athletics department. All student-athlete appearances for such events are coordinated through Bama's Life Skills Office. For information, please call (205) 348-6618.

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE EMPLOYMENT?

Student-athletes receiving athletics grants-in-aid will be eligible for employment during the regular academic year. Student-athletes will continue to be eligible for employment during the University's official vacation periods (i.e., Christmas, Spring Break) and during the summer. Very detailed rules regarding which student-athletes may be employed, when and how much money they can earn must be followed. In addition, the Compliance Office must keep written records verifying all student-athlete employment. If you have an interest in hiring a student-athlete, you must first contact the University's Compliance Office prior to employing the student-athlete. Failure to contact the Compliance Office prior to employing a student-athlete could jeopardize the student-athlete's eligibility to participate in intercollegiate athletics at Alabama and could result in an NCAA violation for the student-athlete's sport.

WHAT ARE THE RULES GOVERNING GAMBLING?

A student-athlete, coach and/or employee of The University of Alabama may not provide information to individuals involved in any type of organized gambling concerning sporting events. In addition, student-athletes, coaches and employees of The University of Alabama may not solicit or accept any wager on any intercollegiate or professional athletics contest.

WHAT ARE EXTRA BENEFITS?

NCAA legislation expressly prohibits University supporters from providing "extra benefits" to student-athletes. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. In general, you may not provide anything or make special arrangements for student-athletes or prospective student-athletes that are not available to the general student population.

- providing cash or loans in any amount, or signing or co-signing for a loan
- a guarantee of bond
- the use of an automobile
- gifts of any kind, including birthday cards, flowers and holiday gifts
- gift of clothing or equipment
- providing loans to relatives or friends
- any tangible items, including merchandise
- free or reduced-cost services, rentals or purchases of any type
- free or reduced-cost housing
- gift of cash or like items
- providing special discounts for goods and services (e.g., car repairs, legal services, haircuts, etc.)
- purchasing complimentary admissions from a student-athlete
- providing an honorarium to a student-athlete for a speaking engagement

SEASON 20TEN PREVIEW

The 2010 season will be one of several endings but will also be one of a handful of new beginnings for the Alabama volleyball team. One of the more notable changes that will occur mid-season is the move from the Coleman Auxiliary Volleyball Extension, better known as the CAVE, to the newly-renovated Foster Auditorium. The Crimson Tide has called the CAVE home since the 2000 season enjoying great success in its friendly confines. Although Foster Auditorium will be new to the current squad, volleyball is no stranger to the historic structure as it housed matches from the program's inaugural season in 1974 to 1995.

"I think the thing that excites me the most about Foster Auditorium is there are so many previous Alabama volleyball players that played there," said head coach Judy Green. "My goal is to bring all of those people back to Foster, so they can have a sense of ownership in something good."

Green also added on the importance of giving former players a sense of pride when they walk back in the building.

"It's their home; It's where they played," said Green. "I want to make it feel like a home to them."

On November 24, not only will four seniors take the court for the final time in Tuscaloosa, but it will also mark the end of Green's 15-year tenure as she announced she would retire following the 2010 season. When Green arrived over a decade ago she was committed to building a national program at the Capstone, and it didn't take her long to make her mark. Among her various accomplishments is Alabama's first SEC Western Division title, which came in 2000, and the Tide's first trip to the NCAA Tournament at the conclusion of the 2005 season. Alabama would go on to win another SEC Western Division crown in 2004 and make three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances from 2005-2007.

"I want to leave Alabama on a very successful note," said Green. "When I took this job I wanted to take this program from where it was and put it at a respectable level nationally. I don't want the focus to be on this being my last season, but more so about our team and the success we can achieve."

As previously mentioned, Alabama will send off four seniors this season including Mary Catherine Aune, Calli Johnson, Alyssa Meuth and Kayla Schmidt. Entering 2010, the quartet has won 39 matches and advanced to the NCAA Tournament once.

Joining the four seniors is one junior, three sophomores and five freshmen. With the team nearly split between returning players and newcomers, Green explains how important integration will be.

"The biggest key is going to be how we integrate five new players into our eight returning players, and how we can become a team as quickly as possible," said Green. "These five newcomers could have their own identity, just like our returning players could have their own identity. Everybody is going to have to be committed to working toward being the best team we can be. I hear a lot of words being said over and over again, but it's going to be about the actions that we take to make that happen."

SNAPSHOTS:

Alyssa Meuth was an All-SEC Second Team selection in 2009 and led Alabama in kills.

HITTERS

The Tide returns two of its top hitters from last season in senior Alyssa Meuth and sophomore Kayla Fitterer and welcomes a trio of talented freshman in Shelbi Goode, Morgan Hendrix and Brianne Vande Griend. Meuth, a Second Team All-SEC honoree from a year ago led Alabama in kills in 2009 with an average of 3.22 per set. She was the Tide's best offensive option in the Bama Bash tallying double-figure kills in each match en route to earning All-Tournament honors.

"We are very fortunate to be returning Alyssa," said Green. "She was one of the league's top performers last year enjoying quite a successful season. She really had a great junior year."

Fitterer jumped into Alabama's rotation quickly as a freshman gaining valuable playing time that will come in handy this season. She established herself early on offensively notching a career-best and team-high 17 kills against Fresno State on Sept. 11. Her top defensive performance of the season came a few weeks later as Fitterer collected 19 digs and three solo blocks for the Tide.

"Kayla had a great freshman season and made really good strides during the spring season," Green explained. "Her confidence level improved a great deal as did her all-around play."

Entering the offensive mix is a trio of highly-touted freshman that are eager to kick off their careers at Alabama. Shelbi Goode, the Tide's most recent addition, was a PrepVolleyball.com All-American and a two-time member of the All Cen-Tex First Team. She helped guide Georgetown (Texas) High School to the AAAAA Texas State Semifinals in 2009 and currently holds the school record in kills (462), blocks (122) and aces (61). She was named Offensive MVP of her team in 2008 and 2009 and was the team's overall MVP her senior season.

"Shelbi has great height, long arms and is very competitive by nature," said Green. "She also has the ability to be a great passer, which will help us out even more."

Hendrix, who is also a native of Texas, comes in with an impressive list of accolades including a place on the PrepVolleyball.com Senior Aces 2010 "The 150" list. Throughout her four years at Lake Travis High School Hendrix guided the team to a 45-3 record and a spot in the 2009 state semifinals. She was an All-State and Academic All-State selection in 2009 as well as an All Cen-Tex First Team member.

"Morgan is one of the most energetic and team-oriented players," said Green. "She has an x-factor about her. Throughout her young volleyball career she's made sacrifices to put herself in a position where she could become a better volleyball player. As she gets stronger and develops, Morgan will certainly be someone who can dominate the net in the SEC."

Rounding out the hitters is Vande Griend, who earned All-American honors in 2009 from Under Armour, the AVCA and PrepVolleyball.com. She helped guide Colorado Springs Christian to four-straight AAA State Championships and earned All-State honors in three of those seasons. In 2009, Vande Griend was named to the Colorado AAA State All-Star Team.

"Brianne is a great all-around athlete," Green said. "She has good hops and a great competitive energy about her on the floor."

Calli Johnson has led Alabama in blocks the last two seasons.

BLOCKERS

Alabama's blocking core will be fronted by one of its most experienced players in senior Calli Johnson. Johnson has been the Tide's top defender at the net for the past two seasons. On Sept. 12, 2009, she became the first Alabama player since 2007 to tally eight or more blocks in a single match, which also set a new career high for Johnson.

"Calli is certainly our most seasoned, experienced player," said Green. "She's been through every situation possible in her career here. It was really fun this spring to see Calli improve. She will be a great role model for all of our players because of her work ethic. She has the ability to be a very effective offensive middle for us."

The Tide's other returning option at the middle blocker spot is redshirt sophomore Leigh Moyer. Moyer's first two seasons have been injury-plagued; however, the time she spent on the court was very effective. In Alabama's opening SEC match, Moyer hit a career-best .500 with eight kills off 14 attempts and just one error. The previous weekend she led the Tide on offense with a career-high 10 kills versus Sacramento State.

"Leigh has been battling injuries her first two years, but by the end of this spring season was playing the best volleyball I have ever seen her play," said Green. "If we can keep her healthy she has a chance to be a very effective offensive middle for us. She can score because she has great speed at the net. It would be nice to see her play an entire season."

From the group of newcomers, Green has a trio of contenders to assist in the defense at the net. Freshman Molly Ahrens, the third Tide rookie from Texas, was named District Co-MVP in 2009 and earned a place on the All-State First Team and All Cen-Tex First Team her senior season. Ahrens set her school record in blocks and was awarded Team MVP honors in 2009.

"Molly is a very competitive individual," said Green. "I believe she is going to do very well at this level and has a great collegiate career ahead of her."

Also available to enter the rotation at the blocker position are Shelbi Goode and Morgan Hendrix.

Kayla Schmidt led the Tide 26 times last season in assists and collected 11 double-doubles.

SETTERS / DEFENSE

The Tide returns both its setters from last season providing great depth at the position. Senior Kayla Schmidt led Alabama in assists 26 times in 2009 and collected a team-high 11 double-doubles. Her best all-around performance came late in the season against South Carolina where she tallied a career-high 48 assists, 11 digs, four kills and three total blocks. Junior Stephanie Riley is the Tide's other option at setter. Riley recorded a season-best 26 assists in 2009 against McNeese State and matched her career-high three service aces with a trio against Mississippi State.

"Wherever Kayla and Stephanie go is where our team will go," said Green. "Kayla is certainly the best athlete we have on our team. She's won a national championship at the junior college level. She knows how to win, is a tremendous defensive player and she's competitive. Stephanie has tremendous leadership abilities. I'm excited to see her embark on this season where she wants to take hold of this team and lead it."

In the back row, Alabama returns its starting libero in sophomore Kelsey Anderson. Anderson earned SEC Freshman of the Week honors once last season and also found a spot on the Hornet Invitational All-Tournament Team. She led the team in digs in 2009 with an average of 3.32 scoops per set and was one of the Tide's top servers with 13 aces on the season.

"Kelsey has improved her ball skills and serving a great deal in the offseason," said Green. "She is definitely going to be a leader on the floor for our team this season."

Joining Anderson is senior Mary Catherine Aune, who along with her defensive skills has been one of the best at serving the ball in Alabama history. She enters her final season in the crimson and white at No. 8 on the Tide's all-time service ace ledger with 128.

"Mary Catherine made great strides in the spring as far as being a more consistent passer and a more consistent volleyball player," Green explained. "Her defensive effort certainly improved and there's a certain winning spirit inside MC we need to have come out on a daily basis. She also has the potential to have an impact as a leader on our team. She can provide confidence, and she can provide stability."

Alabama welcomes one newcomer to the defensive mix with the addition of freshman Kelsey Melito. Melito earned All-Tournament and All-Area Team honors in each of her four seasons playing for The Lovett School. In 2008 and 2009 she was also an All-State Team selection.

"Kelsey is a workhorse," said Green. "She's a very strong kid, she's competitive and she is very committed to being a great volleyball player. She has a positive energy about her. I love her mentality."

AFTER 15 YEARS AT THE HELM OF THE ALABAMA VOLLEYBALL PROGRAM, HEAD COACH JUDY GREEN IS HANDING OVER THE REINS.

CHAPTER 15

JUDY GREEN'S MOST MEMORABLE MATCHES AT ALABAMA

NOV. 22, 1996 VS. KENTUCKY (SEC TOURNAMENT)

Alabama struggled in Green's first season as head coach, entering the SEC Tournament with only four total wins. However, that did not stop the Tide from battling its way to a 3-2 victory over Kentucky, which defeated Alabama 3-1 a month earlier in the season. This was the only win which the Tide recorded away from home all season.

SEPT. 29, 2000 VS. ARKANSAS

The 2000 season was a season of firsts for Green as Alabama's head coach. The Tide reached the 20 win plateau, as well as claimed its first SEC Western Division crown under Green. In Alabama's conference home opener, the Tide was able to fight its way to a 3-2 victory over Arkansas, setting the tone early for its run to the SEC Western Division title.

SEPT. 30, 2005 VS. LSU

In 2005, the Tide defeated a top 25 team for the first time in three seasons, knocking off No. 24 LSU 3-1 in the CAVE. LSU took the opening set 30-25, but it was all Alabama from there. The loss was only the second of the season for the Tigers.

NOV. 19, 2005 VS. TENNESSEE (SEC TOURNAMENT)

Alabama picked up its second win over a top 25 team in the 2005 season during the SEC Tournament, which the Tide hosted. Alabama capitalized on the home court advantage, defeating No. 25 Tennessee 3-2 on its way to the finals. The win propelled the Tide to its first NCAA Tournament bid under Green.

SEPT. 7, 2007 VS. OHIO

Alabama and Ohio opened up the 2007 Notre Dame Shamrock Invitational in dramatic fashion. The 13th-ranked Bobcats raced out to a 2-0 lead, but the Tide fought back to force a fifth set. Alabama eventually won the fifth set 15-10. Ohio was the last top 15 team to be defeated by the Tide.

OCT. 15, 2006 VS. TENNESSEE

The Tide was on a roll in 2006, winning five straight matches including a 3-1 victory over No. 10 LSU. The winning streak figured to be put to the test as Alabama hosted No. 18 Tennessee. However, the Tide handled the Lady Vols easily, defeating them 3-1. The win was the eighth consecutive win at home for Alabama.

DEC. 1, 2006 VS. STEPHEN F. AUSTIN (NCAA TOURNAMENT)

After dropping the first set and battling back to take a 2-1 lead, Alabama eventually fell in five sets to 30-3 Stephen F. Austin. It was the second straight NCAA Tournament appearance for the Tide.

NOV. 22, 2002 VS. SOUTH CAROLINA (SEC TOURNAMENT)

Alabama, who had been beaten 3-0 twice earlier in the season by South Carolina, turned the tables in the SEC Tournament on the No. 2 seed Gamecocks, handing them a 3-0 defeat. The victory marked the program's first ever over a nationally ranked team.

OCT. 27, 2000 VS. AUBURN

Alabama defeated Auburn 3-1 at home after losing to the Tigers the previous nine times. The Tide would not lose again to Auburn until 2006.

NOV. 16, 2001 VS. LSU (SEC TOURNAMENT)

Alabama carried a 10-5 conference record into the 2001 SEC Tournament. However, the Tide would battle its way to take down LSU 3-2, which had defeated Alabama 3-0 at home only one week earlier.

For 14 years, Judy Green has embodied the spirit, essence and lifeblood of volleyball at the University of Alabama. Her unwavering pursuit of excellence and undying devotion to the program she loves has made Green a household name amongst her peers at the Capstone. As the Crimson Tide's longest tenured volleyball coach, Green has raised the net to unprecedented heights.

She led Alabama to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including the program's first in 2005, followed by bids in 2006 and 2007. She has also coached the Tide to a pair of Southeastern Conference Western Division titles in 2000 and 2004 and the championship game of the final SEC Tournament in 2005. Her first recruiting class posted a 22-8 record as seniors en route to the first SEC season knowing everyone associated with our program is more enthusiastic and committed than ever before to help us reach our team goals."

The 2010 season also signals another change for Green and her team – a return to the facility where it all started.

Newly renovated Foster Auditorium will be the new home of Alabama volleyball after spending the past 14 years in Coleman Coliseum and the CAVE. The Crimson Tide originally played its matches in Foster upon the inception of the program in 1972.

"The thing that excites me the most about Foster Auditorium is there are so many previous Alabama volleyball players that played there," said Green.

That kind of focus is a hallmark of Green's program. The 1993 AVCA "Coach of the Year" believes in the long haul. She is out to build a volleyball program at Alabama, not just a team. Success can be fleeting, coming and going with the players who populate the roster. Building a winning program ensures success at every level over the span of a lifetime.

"I believe in playing for a purpose," Green explains. "Our purpose is not just to win. We are here to build a program, not a team. When you refer to yourself as a program it means more than just what happens on the court. It includes success in the classroom as well as being active and visible members of the community. It also means taking the name of 'Alabama' and putting it on the minds of the highest potential student-athletes in the country

Western Division title. The 2008 season brought along yet another highlight as Green collected her 600th career victory ranking her 15th among active coaches for all-time wins.

Now, as she enters her 15th season, Green faces a new challenge. On Jan. 19, 2010 Green announced she will retire as The University of Alabama head volleyball coach following the 2010 season.

"I will always treasure the memories I have and will continue to make at Alabama with our past and current student-athletes and all of the assistant coaches, past and present, that have helped me along the way," Green said. "I also treasure the incredible support staff that always goes to great lengths to ensure our success, our loyal fans that have made the CAVE one of the toughest places for our opponents to play and our past and current athletic administration that has made a significant commitment to raise the bar for volleyball. I, along with my coaching staff, am excited about the challenges and opportunities ahead for the 2010

"My goal is to bring all of those people back to Foster so they can have a sense of ownership in something good."

In her first year at the helm, Green coached three preseason matches in Foster but has never coached anything beyond those.

"We can definitely make it a place where our former players will have a tremendous amount of pride once they walk back in there," explained Green. "It's their home. It's where they played. I want to make it feel like a home to them."

From the beginning, Green has managed to keep her squad working toward a common goal, staying focused on volleyball and playing hard each time out.

and convincing them by our reputation that this is where they want to be."

Building a program is hard work but Green has a proven formula that she knows is successful and Alabama volleyball is reaping the fruits of that plan.

"Your team has to believe in where you are going and believe in the coaches. Everyone has to be willing to put self aside and think of the program first. Alabama volleyball is a family, one where the players, coaches and support staff respect and believe in one another and are committed to the same goals."

Just as her plan for building a program is well thought out and developed, so is her definition of success.

"Evidence of our success will come from watching these players grow and mature, not only as volleyball players but as people who have developed the ultimate confidence in themselves and the program. When that happens, big time things will happen here with regularity."

At every level of Green's athletic career, from standout multi-sport athlete, to multi-sport coach, to nationally recognized volleyball coach, she has enjoyed extreme success. She attributes much of her success to her coaches and experiences in athletics. However, ultimate credit for her success, Green says, goes to her parents, both of whom gave her invaluable gifts.

"My Dad taught me to leave it all on the field, never take anything with you," Green said. "He taught me to respect those coaching me and to make any sacrifice that would benefit the team."

"My Mom believed in me no matter what I did," Green said. "If I had a good match or a great game, she was right there praising me. If I experienced a loss or a setback, she was right there for me, telling me it was a learning experience and there would be another time, another day."

Green got her start at Tuscola High School in her hometown of Lake Junaluska, N.C., where she was a three-year letterwinner in basketball, softball, track and volleyball. When it came time to decide where to go to college, she picked Western Carolina because it was located in Cullowhee, N. C., near her hometown.

At WCU, Green was phenomenally successful, playing volleyball, basketball and softball and earning a grand total of 12 varsity letters in the four years she was there. She is the only athlete, male or female, in WCU history to earn 12 letters.

As a volleyball player, she was a First Team All-Southern Conference selection in 1982 and 1983, the MVP of the 1983 Southern Conference Championship Tournament, and the Southern Conference Volleyball Player of the Decade for the 1980s.

As a basketball player, she scored more than 1,000 career points, and is still one of the school's top 20 career scorers. She was a member of the team voted the Southern Conference Basketball Team of the Decade for the 1980s.

As a softball player, she was an AIAW All-American at shortstop and the first female to be inducted into the Western Carolina University Athletic Hall of Fame. In addition, she was named WCU's "Female Athlete of the Decade for the 1980s".

Green graduated from Western Carolina in 1984 with a degree in physical education. She decided to stay at her alma mater to pursue a master's degree. She landed her first coaching job serving as an assistant volleyball coach at WCU during the 1984 season. In 1985, she was an assistant for the softball team and also became the head coach of the women's cross country team.

Then, in 1986, Green became the head volleyball coach at the University of Montevallo, a National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics school with a rich volleyball tradition, including a string of four consecutive NAIA National Tournament appearances. Green immediately continued the winning tradition, taking the Falcons to 10 straight national championship tournaments, including a fourth place NAIA finish in 1988 and a 50-5 record, fifth-place national finish in 1994.

While at Montevallo, she earned the respect of her peers nationwide as she was selected the 1993 National Coach of the Year by the American Volleyball Coaches Association. She was named NAIA South Region Coach of the Year and Southeast Region Coach of the Year from 1989-94.

At Montevallo, located 50 miles east of Tuscaloosa, Green coached 26 NAIA/AVCA All-Americans, 38 NAIA All-District 27 players, 11 NAIA All-Southeast Region players, and eight NAIA District 27 Players of the Year.

JOSH LAUER

ASSISTANT COACH

Josh Lauer, who serves as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator, is entering his third season on the Alabama volleyball coaching staff. In just three short seasons, he has helped the Crimson Tide land its first top-30 recruiting class and four High School All-Americans.

Prior to making the move to Tuscaloosa, Lauer spent four years as the head coach at the University of Missouri - St. Louis where he took his team from the bottom of the conference to a top five standing. The Tritons put together their first 10-plus conference match winning season in Lauer's final year after managing just four Great Lakes Valley Conference wins when he began in 2004. Throughout his tenure at Missouri - St. Louis, Lauer's squads collected numerous team and individual accolades including the American Volleyball Coaches Association Academic Award, the Great Lakes Valley Conference Sportsmanship Award, one ESPN the Magazine Academic All-District Third Team honoree and several all-conference and academic all-conference selections.

Lauer's coaching career got started at the club level where he spent eight years with the St. Louis CYC Volleyball Club. He had three top-five national finishes in the open division at the United States Junior Olympic Volleyball National Tournament and two additional top 20 finishes. More than 20 of Lauer's club team players were recruited and played at the NCAA Division I level.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Lauer is a 1999 graduate of Washington University - St. Louis where he earned a bachelor's degree in chemistry with a minor in religious studies. He is married to the former Debra Reckase.

"Josh is one of the best recruiters in the nation. I feel like our recruiting took a giant step up since he got here last season. He is extremely knowledgeable about the game and has a dynamic personality. Our outside hitters and liberos are fortunate to be coached by him every day."

KEVIN DUNN

ASSISTANT COACH

After spending one season as a volunteer at Alabama, Kevin Dunn transitioned into a full-time assistant coach in July. He originally joined the Crimson Tide in August of 2009 after spending one season as a graduate assistant at Southern Arkansas University.

While at Southern Arkansas, Dunn was responsible for practice planning, recruiting and offseason conditioning. He helped lead the Lady Muleriders to an 11-win season and had two All-Gulf South Conference West Division team selections.

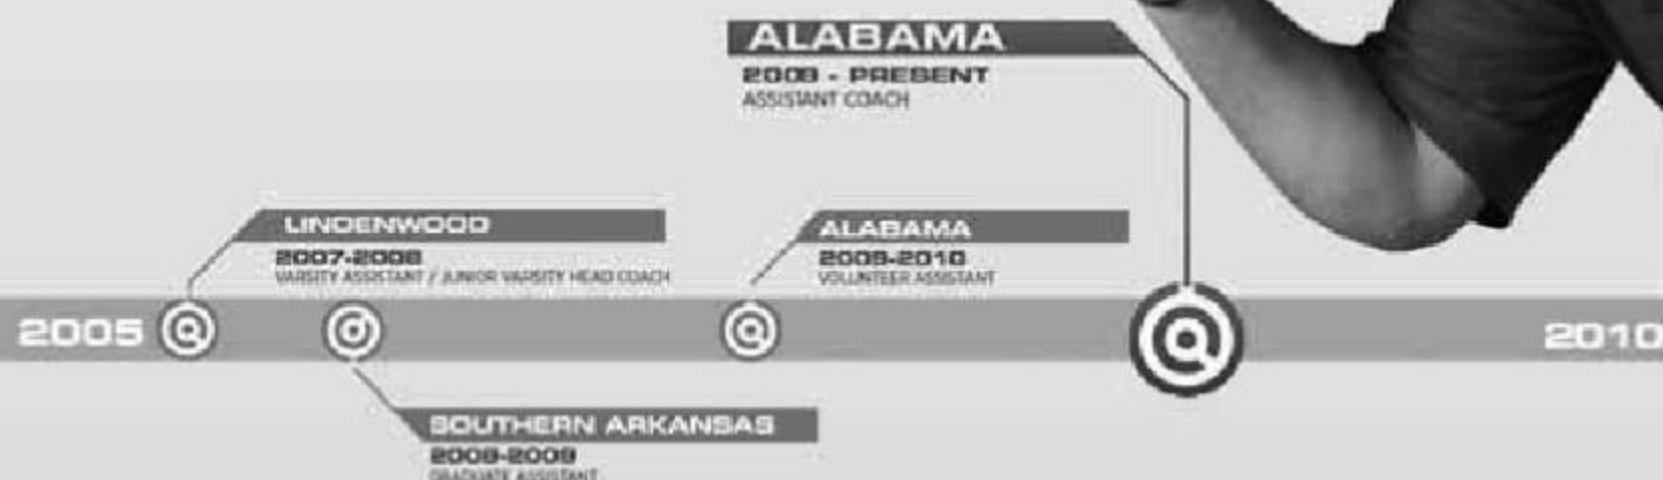

Before joining the Southern Arkansas staff, Dunn served as the junior varsity head coach and varsity assistant coach at Lindenwood University in Saint Charles, Mo. While at Lindenwood, he planned and executed conditioning routines and teambuilding exercises. During the 2007 season, Dunn helped lead the Lions to a fifth place NAIA national ranking.

Dunn was also a member of the Lions men's volleyball program where he guided Lindenwood to national rankings from 2003-07 and the NAIA National Championship Finals in 2006. In addition, he was an Academic All-Conference award winner from 2004-07.

Dunn received his Bachelor of Arts degree in history and business administration from Lindenwood in 2008.

"It was a natural transition to make by promoting Kevin to a full time assistant coaching position after he spent his first season as our volunteer coach. Our players are very familiar with Kevin and know his personality which will help them as we head into our preseason camp in early August. Kevin brings good experience to our staff and I believe he, Josh and I will have great chemistry which our team is going to depend upon. In addition to scouting and film breakdown, Kevin will work primarily with our setters in the gym. I appreciate Kevin's loyalty to me and to our volleyball program."

ALL-AMERICANS

VOLLEYBALL MAGAZINE • HONORABLE MENTION • 1995

Nina Foster will be remembered as one of the greatest volleyball players in the program's history after her back-to-back stellar performances during the 1994-1995 seasons. As a middle blocker, Foster became the first Tide player to earn All-American status and AVCA All-District honors. The three-time SEC player of the week led the nation in blocks per game in 1994 (1.90) and was second in the nation in kills per game (6.02). During her tenure at the Capstone, Foster led the conference in blocks per game and kills per game. Foster can also be found in numerous categories in the Alabama record books. Foster is second all-time for solo blocks with 115, eighth in block assists with 240 and eighth in kills with 1,289. Foster holds the record for the all-time highest career hitting percentage with .3402.

AVCA • HONORABLE MENTION • 2003, 2004

Hailing from Ft. Wayne, Ind., Erin Heffner became only the second player in Alabama volleyball history to earn All-America honors and was the first Tide volleyballer to be elected by the AVCA. Heffner is also the only Tide player to earn the honor twice in the program's existence. During her tenure at the Capstone, Heffner led the SEC in kills per game in 2003 and 2004. Heffner also finished ninth in the nation in 2004 in the same category with 5.55 kills per game. The five-time SEC player of the week and two-time AVCA All-District selection also garnered AVCA South District Freshman of the Year accolades in 2001. Perhaps one of the most successful players to wear the Crimson and White, Heffner can be found on every career record list except assists and is the all-time kills leader with 2,090.

AVCA • HONORABLE MENTION • 2006, 2007

Crystal Hudson, a native from Hueytown, is one of the greatest middle blockers in Tide history. Hudson led her team to its first, second and third NCAA tournament berths in school history. In 2006, she led the team with 452 kills and 125 blocks. Hudson also posted a .824 hitting percentage against Kentucky, placing her fifth in the individual match records for hitting percentage. Hudson holds the Alabama record in that category after pulling in a .917 hitting percentage against Oklahoma in 2005. The AVCA South Region team selection became only the second player in Alabama history to earn AVCA Honorable Mention honors. Hudson was also selected to the All-SEC first team as a junior and senior.

AVCA • HONORABLE MENTION • 2008

Following her stellar junior campaign, Baltimore native Brooks Webster was honored with AVCA Honorable Mention recognition becoming the third player in Alabama history to achieve this status. In addition to her national award, Webster was also recognized by the SEC making its First Team. She led the Tide with 424 kills. Over the course of the season Webster collected 12 double-doubles and rattled off 20-plus kills on five occasions. She led the conference in kills with an average of 4.17 per set against SEC opponents and notched a career-best 26 in Alabama's win at Georgia. On the defensive end, Webster scooped up 287 kills good for second on the team. At the net, she racked up 45 blocks with 17 of those solo. Webster entered the Tide career record books during her junior season in three categories and is currently seventh in total attacks, eighth in block solos and 11th in kills.

1996-PRESENT

GREEN

226-215 (.512)/110-124 SEC (.470)

Judy Green came to the Capstone in 1996 as one of the winningest volleyball coaches in the country. A proven winner, Green guided the Tide to 10 straight winning campaigns from 1999-2008. In 2007, she led Alabama to its third consecutive NCAA tournament appearance and third in school history. In 2000, the Tide captured its first SEC Western Division title and a school record for SEC victories. In addition, she led Alabama to a share of the Western Division crown in 2004.

1989-95

DOROTHY
FRANCO-REED

1114-131 (.465)/27-63 (.500) SEC

In addition to being a standout player for the Crimson Tide in the late 1970s, Dorothy Franco-Reed was entrusted with rebuilding the volleyball program at Alabama after its reinstatement in 1989. During her tenure, she guided the Tide to its first 20-plus win seasons in the modern era.

1974-81

STEPHANIE SCHLEUDER

285-108 (.725)/3-3 (.500) SEC

Stephanie Schleuder served as the head coach for both the volleyball and women's basketball teams at Alabama from 1975-77. She compiled a 39-36 mark as the basketball mentor. She was the first official head coach for both of those programs. Following her stint at Alabama, Schleuder coached at Minnesota for 13 seasons and is currently the head coach at Macalester College in St. Paul, Minn. and has held the position the last 12 years.
